

ANNOUNCING THE 2021 FALL TERM OF THE CHATTANOOGA SCHOOL OF PREACHING AND BIBLICAL STUDIES

MONDAY classes at Green's Lake Road begin on August 23 and end on November 15 (13 weeks)

7:00 p.m.	1 Corinthians -The church of God in the ancient, corrupt city of Corinth was a memorable one, to say the least. This inspired letter from Paul touches on a number of aspects of Christian living, as well as showing the distinction between God's wisdom and the wisdom of the world. The church there had a number of issues, but God through Paul helped provide the remedy for those matters that troubled them.	Freddie Clayton, instructor Freddie is an evangelist of the Dunlap congregation
8:00 p.m.	Ezekiel - Ezekiel, whom Jehovah dubbed "son of man," had a powerful message for the Jews who had been taken as captives to Babylon. Several portions of the book are presented in symbolic language. Yes, this is a challenging book . . . but taking on a challenge can help us grow! A study of Ezekiel helps our understanding of God's dealings with His people, as well as the hope and comfort which He offers them.	Roger Campbell, instructor Roger is an evangelist of the Green's Lake Road congregation
9:00 p.m.	Exodus & Leviticus - These two books will follow the history of Israel from the time that God's people became slaves in Egypt to some of the events which transpired at Mount Sinai. A study of these sections of the Bible helps a person have a greater appreciation for the old law and the Almighty God who gave it.	Jim Lewis, instructor Jim is an elder and evangelist of the Green's Lake Road congregation

TUESDAY class at Union Grove (Cleveland, TN) begins on August 24 and ends on November 16 (13 weeks)

7:00 p.m.	Genesis - A thorough investigation of the Bible's opening book lays the foundation for a fruitful study of the rest of the Scriptures. Beginning with the creation and closing with the death of Joseph, Genesis' message is as relevant today as ever. This book shows the early days of mankind's existence and introduces God's special plans for Abraham, his descendants, and the coming Seed.	Ron Gilbert, instructor Ron is an evangelist of the South Pittsburg congregation
